

CONTRACTOR DISCLAIMER

The contractor contact information in this email is provided by FWAVE solely as a convenience and does not constitute a recommendation, referral, endorsement, certification, warranty, or guarantee of any contractor.

Each contractor is an independent business and is not an employee, agent, representative, subcontractor, preferred contractor, or affiliate of FWAVE. FWAVE does not employ, engage, supervise, direct, control, or compensate the contractor, receives no commission or referral fee, and is not a party to any agreement between you and the contractor.

You are solely responsible for selecting and engaging a contractor and should independently verify the contractor's experience, references, licenses, insurance, reputation, pricing, proposed contract terms, and suitability for your project. Any contract, payment, warranty, dispute, loss, damage, injury, or claim relating to the contractor or the contractor's work is solely between you and the contractor.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, FWAVE disclaims responsibility and liability for the selection, acts, omissions, representations, workmanship, performance, or conduct of any contractor and for any loss, damage, injury, delay, lien, payment dispute, warranty issue, or other claim arising from or relating to the contractor or the contractor's work.

Nothing in this disclaimer limits any separate express written product warranty issued by FWAVE that applies according to its terms. FWAVE's product warranties do not constitute warranties of contractor workmanship or installation services.
